

Mr. Van Hasselt of the Energy Institute presents an award to Executive Chairman Malcolm Jones

Executive Chairman made Fellow of Energy Institute

The Energy Institute has bestowed Executive Chairman Mr. Malcolm Jones with a fellowship.

Representative of the Energy Institute Mr. Maarten Van Hasselt presented Mr. Jones with the award of Fellowship at the Journey To Excellence (J2E) Recognition Ceremony held at the Pointe-a-Pierre Club on June 13.

In his presentation, Mr. Van Hasselt noted that a Fellow of the Energy Institute occupied the most senior grade of membership for energy professionals. This position is an internationally recognized and highly respected symbol of excellence and career distinction.

Mr. Jones was awarded the Fellowship for his contributions to Petrotrin and the local energy sector. As a Fellow of the Energy Institute, he would be required to promote the Energy Institute in the Caribbean where he is one of the first Fellows.

The Energy Institute (EI) is the leading professional body for the energy industry, supporting almost 12,000 professionals internationally. A Royal Charter membership organization, the Energy Institute serves society with independence, professionalism and a wealth of expertise in energy matters, creating a home for energy professionals and a scientific and technical reservoir for industry. It is licensed by the Engineering Council (UK) to offer Chartered, Incorporated and Engineering Technician status to engineers.

The Energy Institute was created in 2003 by the merger of two key energy organizations - the Institute of Petroleum and the Institute of Energy. The Energy Institute seeks to promote the safe, environmentally responsible and efficient supply and use of energy in all its forms and applications. It works to accomplish this through the services provided to individuals and organizations in membership to the benefit of society as a whole.

Thanking the Energy Institute for including him on its register as a Fellow Mr. Jones said, "Being appreciated and recognized for one's contribution is certainly a pleasant and rewarding experience... I humbly accept this membership as a Fellow, on my own behalf and also on behalf of the Petrotrin Family. Thank you most sincerely."
